Changes name's spelling, to decide Cabinet after talks with Amit Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Bengaluru, July 26

THREE DAYS AFTER the Congress-(D)S coalition in Karnataka collapsed after they were defeated in a trust vote, state BJP president B S Yediyurappa was Friday sworn in as Chief Minister. Yediyurappa met Governor Vajubhai Vaia in the morning to stake claim and requested him to administer the oath of office the same day.

He was sworn at a ceremony at the Raj Bhavan alone saying he would decide appointments to his Cabinet after consulting party president Amit Shah and announced that a special Assembly session will be called Monday to prove his majority.

Yediyurappa said that since he is already Leader of the Opposition, there was no need to call a legislature party meeting to elect him leader. This will be his fourth stint as Chief Minister.

Yediyurappa also reverted to the earlier English spelling of his name, apparently influenced by numerology. The change became public in his letter to Governor Vaia, and later, in the official invitation for the swearing in ceremony. Incidentally, he had changed the spelling of his name from Yediyurappa to Yeddyurappa after he had to resign as Chief Minister in 2007. Then, the BJP's coalition partner (D)S reneged on its promise to share power for 20 months.

Earlier, the Chief Minister-instructed heads of all departments to put on hold orders related to new projects that were issued in July by the H D Kumaraswamy-led coalition government until further review. He also put on hold all transfers that were cleared, but have not been executed.

During the debate on the trust vote in the Assembly, the BJP had accused the Congress-(D)S coalition and Kumaraswamy of clearing projects and transfer of officials, despite having lost majority.

He resumes office after the Kumaraswamy was defeated in a confidence motion in the Karnataka Assembly 99-105 votes. The coalition crumbled after 16 rebel MLAs quit and did not participate in the trust vote.

Yediyurappa told BJP workers before the swearing-in that Shah sought to him in the morning and asked him to prepare for the oath on Friday. In Delhi, BJP working president JPNadda dismissed the Opposition's claim that his party engineered defections to bring down the coalition government and said it fell due to its internal reasons and asserted the BJP will provide a stable regime.

On Yediyurappa being over the 75-year age bar the party has stipulated for its leaders holding any government position, Nadda said the Karnataka veteran was the leader of the BJP Legislative Party in the state and was natural for him to be the party's choice for the Chief Minister's post.

Speaking to reporters, Nadda said, "It depends... you see, first of all, he is a leader, he is an elected leader of the legislative party. Accordingly, he is taking oath. It is a continuous process and the party takes note of ongoing developments from time to time."

However, proving majority in the Assembly, winning by-elections to seats vacated by the resignation of the 16 rebel Congress-(D)S MLAs or their possible disqualification, and ministry formation will pose tough challenges for Yediyurappa, said senior BJP leaders. Yediyurappa, said senior BJP leaders, Yediyurappa has to play a balancing act by ensuring that those within the party are not sidelined, while also accommodating the rebel Congress-(D)S legislators.

After the disqualification of three rebel Congress MLAs, the current strength of the 225-member House excluding the Speaker is 221 and the half-way mark 111. The BJP along with one independent has 106, the Congress 76 (including MLAs whose resignations and disqualification pleas are pending), and the JD(S) 37 (including resigned and pending disqualification), and one BSP and nominated MLA each and the Speaker, who has a casting vote in case of a tie.

"Corruption Icon and Former Jai Bid Shri (B)SYP has used his excellent Horse Trading skills to subvert democracy and come to power," the state Congress tweeted.

Condemning the BJP's move, former chief minister and Congress leader Siddaramaiah said Karnataka has become an experimental lab of the BJP. "In what article of the Constitution is the Governor allowed to permit the party to form govt that doesn't have majority? It is shameful!" he tweeted.

The JD(S) dubbed the Governor's decision to permit the BJP leader to take oath without raising any questions on the numbers was "anti-democratic".

Ahead of taking the oath as Karnataka chief minister, Yediyurappa asserted there would be no politics of vengeance in his rule and he would take the Opposition along. (With PTI)

Airtel to allocate 9.7 lakh equity shares, 497 special shares to Tata Teleservices stakeholders

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, July 26

BHARTI AIRTEL'S COMMITTEE of directors on Friday approved allocation of over 5.7 lakh equity shares and 497 redeemable preference shares to shareholders of Tata Teleservices as part of merger process. "970,668 equity shares in aggregate including fractional entitlements fully paid up of face value of ₹ 25 per share of the Company to the eligible equity shareholders of TTL in the ratio of 1 equity share of the company for every 2,014 equity shares held in TTL by eligible equity shareholders of TTL," Airtel said in a BSE filing.

The allocation will include 79,529 Bharti Airtel Limited (BAL) equity shares of Bharti Airtel Fractional Share Entitlement Trust, it said.

Bharti Airtel on July 1 announced that the consumer mobile business of Tata Teleservices Ltd (TSSL) has now become its part.

However, the Department of Telecom (DoT) is yet to take this merger on record and is gearing up to challenge the deal in the Supreme Court.

TSSL shareholders holding fully paid-up, redeemable preference shares will get 10 fully paid-up redeemable, non-participating, non-cumulative preference shares of a face value of ₹100 of Airtel.

Under the composite scheme of arrangement among TSSL and Bharti Hexacom, a subsidiary of Bharti Airtel, and their respective shareholders and lenders, the Sunil Bharti Mittal led company has allocated 467 BAL redeemable preference share (RPS) to TSSL equity holders in proportion to their holding and cash in lieu thereof to the non-resident TSSL equity share.

The committee has approved allocation of 10 BAL RPS to all and not each shareholder holding fully paid up optionally convertible preference shares to TSSL shareholders.
